MEET BILL KELLER: In 1999 Bill Keller founded Liveprayer.com -- an online prayer resource where anyone can go to receive prayer from a real person in real time. With the help of a small army of retired volunteer pastors, Keller and Liveprayer.com have personally responded to an astounding 60 million requests for prayer. Keller also sends out a daily devotional to over two million e-mail subscribers. And his Live Prayer with Bill Keller television program is seen by an estimated quarter-million viewers each night in Florida and slated to go national on PAX TV Network in July, as Keller officially takes on the ‘Rulers of late night TV.’”

MASS APPEAL: Bill Keller has taken his business and entrepreneurial energies and turned them toward helping people find answers to life’s most basic questions. Having recognized the vast potential of the Internet to reach people from all walks of life, Keller has successfully harnessed that potential to bring help and healing to millions worldwide. An energetic and inspiring speaker, Keller is challenging the notion of how the Church reaches people in need, while redefining late night TV. It’s hard to argue with his success!

PAST: Bill Keller was a successful businessman until 1989, when he became involved in insider trading of the stock market, was convicted, lost everything, and spent over two years in federal prison. While there, Keller became a committed Christian, earning an undergraduate degree in biblical studies from Virginia’s Liberty University. Upon his release in August of 1992, Keller entered full-time ministry, traveling nationwide and producing faith-based television programs. In 1999 he founded the online Internet site Liveprayer.com, following it up in 2003 with the launch of the “LivePrayer” nationwide television program.

PRESENT: Today, Keller’s Liveprayer.com is the largest interactive Christian website in the world, responding personally to tens of thousands of e-mails daily and sending out daily devotionals to over two million subscribers. Since 1999, Liveprayer.com has responded personally to over 60 million requests for prayer and has received nearly two million reports of prayer answered. Also, over 110,000 have come to faith in Christ.
